

FERC STANDARDS OF CONDUCT DISCLOSURES

The following information may have been inadvertently communicated by: (1) posting on the company's internal website; (2) communication via electronic mail; or (3) communication via oral or written means during internal meetings/conferences. The information may have contained off-OASIS transmission information, disclosure of which is prohibited under the FERC Standards of Conduct. Accordingly, in an abundance of caution, the information is hereby made available to the public via posting for a period of ninety (90) days from the date of the inadvertent communication.

On January 1, 2026, at approximately 12:43 am, a neighboring Balancing Authority Area's customer information was shared with marketing employees.
